

Delta Tau Delta Fraternity Scholarship for Excellence

As men “Committed to Lives of Excellence,” the Brothers of Delta Tau Delta strive to achieve high standing in leadership, academic success, athletics, philanthropy, involvement, social interactions, financial endeavors, as well as personal growth. Providing the tools necessary to accomplish these goals is vital to succeeding as an individual. This is why the Beta Tau chapter of Delta Tau Delta , at UNL, will be offering one $500 and two $250 scholarships to incoming freshman interested in joining the Greek community at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Candidates should complete the following to be considered for this scholarship:

- Attach their high school resume, including activity involvement.
- Attach a copy of their official high school transcript.
- Answer the following questions 500 words or fewer.

(Essay Prompt)“The Greek community tends to receive a bad reputation from outside media. As an incoming freshman, how will you work to make a positive influence on the Greek community?”

Scholarship applications will be due Feb. 1, 2018 to Delta Tau Delta (nedtdscholarship@gmail.com). You are not required to join Delta Tau Delta Fraternity in order to be eligible for this scholarship. The Beta Tau selection committee will select the recipients of this award after Feb 1, 2018. Scholarship proceeds will be distributed at the beginning of the Fall 2018 school semester.
